MEMORIAL ERMANNO GARNERO

Ciao Ermanno,

With you, a piece of mountain biking history has left us. We remember you among those pioneers who, armed with great passion for off-road cycling and riding the very first mountain bikes, rediscovered the high trails of the Susa and Chisone valleys, giving us the beauty of pedaling in our mountains: you were the creator of our story, first with the Tour dell'Assietta and now with the Assietta Legend. But your memory goes beyond that: you were a beacon for all of us, and your experience and the advice you gave us have always been invaluable. We will remember you by our side in organizing the races, amid a thousand challenges and many satisfactions, doing the things closest to our hearts, where there will always be a space for you! We will miss you, Ermanno. We will strive to be worthy of your legacy and remember you in the Assietta Legend, dedicated to you.

At the same time as the Assietta Legend will take place the Gravel Race.

MARATHON LEGEND

The racetrack of the Assietta Legend runs along the "Strada dell'Assietta" at over 2,000 meters. of altitude in a highly suggestive mountain environment, retracing the sections of the race that have made the Tour dell'Assietta famous since 1988, to create a complete, spectacular, scenic, hard and fun mountain route.

ROUTE CURRENTLY BEING FINALIZED

Departure and Finish in Sestriere with a total of 68 Km and altitude range of 1862 mt.

Departure from Sestriere (2035 meters), a place that certainly needs no introduction, to go to Monte Rotta and from there go up the Gelindo Bordin path (2218 meters), then descend towards Sestriere and take the ski slope that crosses the state road to Pinerolo to continue along the Chisone valley reaching Sestriere Borgata. In a jiffy you reach Pradelato and down to Pourrieres (1418 meters) where you have to turn to Balboutet. Here you start to climb decisively, touching precisely the hamlet of Balboutet (1557 meters) to continue until Pian dell'Alpe location: the dirt road in excellent condition goes up through pastures and coniferous woods reaching the beautiful mountain valley of Pian dell'Alpe, at an altitude of 1821 meters. Continue towards Colle delle Finestre, then turn left onto the strada dell'Assietta (Assietta road) which allows you to admire the splendid panorama towards the valley floor arriving in the last stretch that separates us from the Colle dell'Assietta (2472 m). The view is austere, to say the least superb, and after a short stretch of hard climb you reach the head of the Assietta at an altitude of mt. 2567. From here begins the fast descent that brings us to Col Lauson (2497 meters) and then Col Blegier (2381 meters) which follows the short climb that leads to Monte Genevris (2533 meters), then the descent on the Costa Piana, following Col Bourget (2299 meters) and, at the end of the Assietta road, you reach Col Basset (2424 meters), the last peak of the route from where you descend towards Sestriere. After about 2.5 km of descent, turn on the path "Gelindo Bordin" (2226 m) to go until near the village of Sestriere, where it descends directly to the arrival of Fraiteve square.

Feed zones: Balboutet, Pian dell'Alpe, Colle dell'Assietta, Costa Piana, Sestriere (arrival)

Technical zones: Balboutet, Pian dell'Alpe, Costa Piana (reachable without motorized vehicles)

TIME GATE

Participants who will transit to Pian dell'Alpe after 12.00am will be excluded from the event and will proceed independently and with their own means to return to Sestriere.

MAXIMUM TIME

The maximum race time is 5.45 hours and the closing of the finish line is expected within 3.00 pm.

ASSISTANCE

Medical Assistance: ambulances, motorbikes, doctors and qualified paramedical staff

Private Assistance: any private assistance following the competition is forbidden, under penalty of athlete(s) disqualification.

Radio assistance: along the route and upon arrival.

ECO-ZONE

We respect nature. All participants are required to deposit waste in the eco-zones set up by the organization along the route, which will be supervised in collaboration with local authorities.

Whoever will be caught throwing rubbish out of the pre-established eco-zones will be disqualified from the event with a special announcement from the race direction.
